If the gym wasn't ready for an assembly, who was blamed? If the Senior play didn't have a record run, who was blamed? Who taught English classes on the stage while the girls were having gym classes? Whose favorite expression was "Forget it"? None other than Mrs. Mary Lee Young. The Staff of the 1967 MARINER dedicates its yearbook to her.

Dear Faculty and Students at M. C. H. S.:

At this time I am very pleased to have the opportunity to thank you all for my wonderful school year at M. C. H. S. Especially would I like to extend my appreciation to the Student Council, who has sponsored me this year.

Coming from Stockholm, Sweden; knowing little English; and knowing nothing about the school life and the American way of living, I really have learned a lot; and I will never be able to thank you enough for your kindness and understanding you showed me throughout the whole year.

The ball games, Homecoming ceremonies, dances, parties, club trips, and all the fun I had together with my American friends are only a few of the many treasured memories I will take back to Sweden.

Homecoming

In a pep assembly on Friday, October 7, the homecoming queen and court of 1966-67 were announced. Elected as representatives of their classes were Barb Mansell, ninth grade; Joyce Osterland, tenth grade; Jeannie Bassett and Chris Juswick, eleventh grade; and Catherina Ahlund and Billie Lee Burns, twelfth grade. Susie Lozon was elected as our homecoming queen.

On Wednesday night of homecoming week, a bonfire was held to get ready for the big game. October 21 was the last day of the Homecoming festivities. Queen Susie and her court were crowned Friday afternoon in school. To top the whole week off, the mighty Mariner team downed Yale 37-0.

One of the projects for this year was sponsoring Catharina, our first exchange student. This year it took over the carnival.
